Instructions:

Use this form if the Co-op has filed an application against you with the Landlord and Tenant Board (LTB). If you do not respond to the application, you may be deemed to have accepted all of the facts and allegations in the application, and the LTB may proceed without further notice to you.

You must file your response with the LTB as soon as possible but no later than the deadline specified in the Notice of Hearings. You must provide a copy of your response to the applicant.

PART A: Explain why you disagree with what the Co-op is claiming in its application to evict you.
(If you need more space, attach additional pages. Include the LTB file number on each additional page.)

COLLECTING PERSONAL INFORMATION

The LTB collects the personal information requested on this form under section 185 of the Residential Tenancies Act, 2006. This information will be used to determine applications under this Act. After this form is filed, your information may also become available to the public. Any questions about the collection of this information may be directed to a Customer Service Officer at 416-645-8080 or toll-free at 1-888-332-3234.

PART B: If you believe it would be unfair for the LTB to grant the Co-op's application for eviction, give reasons why you believe this. (If you need more space, attach additional pages. Include the LTB file number on each additional page.)

PART C: If you believe that the LTB should delay the enforcement of the eviction order, give reasons why it should be delayed. (If you need more space, attach additional pages. Include the LTB file number on each additional page.)

PART D: Your contact information
