SECTIONA*When to use this application

You can use this application to have the Landlord and Tenant Board (LTB) determine whether all or part of the Residential Tenancies Act, 2006 applies to a rental unit or residential complex.

You can make this application if you are the landlord or the tenant.

SECTIONB*How to complete this application

Read these instructions before completing the application form. You are responsible for ensuring that your application is correct and complete. Follow the instructions carefully when you complete the application form.

The information you fill in on the form will be read electronically; therefore, it is important to follow the instructions below:

- Print clearly or type and do not touch the edges of the boxes.
- If there are more boxes in a line than you need, start from the left and leave the extra boxes blank.
- Do not fill in boxes that do not apply to you (for example, if you do not have a fax number, do not fill in boxes in the space marked “Fax Number”).
- If the instructions tell you to shade a box or a circle (for example, circles marked “Yes” or “No”), shade the box or circle completely.

PART 1: GENERAL INFORMATIONApplicant Information

Shade the appropriate circle to indicate whether you are a landlord or a tenant.

If you are a landlord:

Fill in your name and address. If the landlord is a company, fill in the name of the company under “Company Name”. Include both daytime and evening telephone numbers and a fax number and e-mail address, if you have them.

If there is more than one landlord, fill in information about one of the landlords in this section. Provide the names, addresses and telephone numbers of the additional landlords on the Schedule of Parties Form which is available from the LTB website at sjto.ca/ltb.

If you are a tenant:

Fill in your name. Fill in your address if it is different from the address of the rental unit covered by this application. Include both daytime and evening telephone numbers and a fax number and e-mail address, if you have them.

Related Applications

If there are any other applications that relate to this rental unit, and those applications have not been resolved, list the file numbers in the space provided.

PART 2: REASON FOR YOUR APPLICATION

The Residential Tenancies Act, 2006 (the RTA) applies to most residential rental properties. However, certain types of accommodation are generally not covered under the RTA. This includes hotels, correctional institutions, emergency shelters, accommodation where the occupancy is conditional upon employment and accommodation where the occupant is required to share a kitchen or bathroom facility with the owner or his/her immediate family.

Other types of accommodation are only partially covered by the RTA. This includes non-profit and social housing units.

Also, there are certain provisions of the RTA that only apply to care homes, such as rules for increasing the charges for care services and meals. Other provisions only apply to mobile homes and land lease communities (for example, rules about selling mobile or land lease homes).

You can apply to have the LTB determine whether the RTA or any provision of it applies to one, some or all rental units in the complex. It is up to the member to determine whether or not the RTA applies in any situation.

In the space provided, describe the accommodation (for example, the complex is a hotel or the rental unit is provided for emergency shelter) and whether or not you think the RTA or any provision of it applies to you. Explain why you believe this.

Fill in the total number of rental units in the complex. Then, fill in how many rental units are covered by your application. If the application covers more than one but not all of the rental units in the complex, list the additional rental units that are covered by the application on a separate sheet and file it with the application.

PART 3: SIGNATURE

If you are the landlord, shade the circle marked "Landlord". Then, sign the application form and fill in the date.

If you are the tenant, shade the circle marked "Tenant". Then, sign the application form and fill in the date.

If you are the representative, shade the circle marked "Representative". Then, sign the application form and fill in the date.

Information about the Representative

Complete this section only if you are a representative or agent. Fill in your name, address and contact information in the spaces provided.

REQUEST FOR ACCOMMODATION OR FRENCH-LANGUAGE SERVICES

The LTB wants to ensure that everyone who uses its services can ask for and receive accommodation and/or French Language services in order to be able to participate in its proceedings on an equal basis.

Shade the appropriate box or boxes on the form to indicate whether you need accommodation under the Ontario Human Rights Code, French-language services or both. The LTB will not include a copy of this form when we give the other parties a copy of the application form. However, the information will be included in your application file. The file may be viewed by other parties to the application.

If you require accommodation under the Human Rights Code, explain what services you need in the space provided.

The LTB will schedule your hearing on the first available hearing date within this 3 week period. If there are any dates that you are not available during this 3 week period, list them here.
